

Sessions at IUCN World Conservation Congress

1. An Action Plan to Protect the Bustard Species of India
2. An integrated fisheries farming approach to addressing food security and poverty alleviation in coastal India
3. Biodiversity conservation, community livelihoods and decentralized management of PAs in India
4. Community empowerment and conservation through sustainable livelihoods: a success story from India
5. Community Support for Sundarbans Biosphere Reserve in India
6. Ecotourism as a tool for Biodiversity Conservation and Community Livelihoods: Achievements and Policy Implications
7. Greening India: Gaining or losing
8. Human elephant conflict and habitat management in Nilgiris Biosphere Reserve, South India
9. Identifying Ecologically and Biologically Significant Marine and Coastal Areas (EBSAs) along the coast of Maharashtra, India.
10. Mainstreaming resilience thinking into national sustainable development plans and policies
11. Marine Conservation Education in Palk Bay, India
12. New Evidences on Natural Capital – TEEB India Initiative
13. See grass for its worth
14. Strategies for conservation of Rare, Endangered and Threatened medicinal plants of Western Ghats
15. World Heritage Sites for Biodiversity Conservation and Ecosystem based- Disaster Risk Reduction
16. Your animal or My animal: The perception and attitude of people towards wildlife in Central India
17. Poster presentation on “Aerial Systems and Wireless Sessions: Technological Options for Conservation
18. Conservation Campus on Tiger Conservation
19. Mobilising IUCN to strengthen in the World Heritage Convention and improve the conservation outlook of natural sites
20. Not only management: assessment of conservation effectiveness of protected areas and their regional networks